

H.O.M.E.

Resource Manual and Training Curriculum

Thinking about the future of someone with a disability and where they will live? Come learn more about a one-stop shopping resource available to families of anyone with a disability called:

- Home
 - What does this mean for you?
- Options
 - What's out there for housing and supports?
- Moving toward your goal
 - What do you do to close the deal and get in?
- Ending your journey
 - With a place you can call home

Open to the Public – Pre-Registration Required

Saturday, December 13, 2014
10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon
UConn UCEDD Conference Room, Suite 173
The Exchange, Building Four
270 Farmington Ave.
Farmington, CT 06030

You may register at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/HYCNYR>

For more information, please contact
Linda Rammler, M.Ed., Ph.D. at: lrammler@uchc.edu or call: 860-679-1585

Funded by the CT Council on Developmental Disabilities

University of Connecticut
Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities
Education, Research and Service
263 Farmington Avenue
Farmington, CT 06030-6222
Telephone: 860-679-1500 ~ Toll-Free: 866-623-1315
TTY: 860-679-1502 ~ Fax: 860-679-1571

WWW.UCONNUCEDD.ORG